SP500

Yesterday, we found that “Today further strengthens the evidence supporting that preference [W-5 is underway.” So far so good, as today’s new ATH and new ATCH places the index more firmly in our preferred “W-5 (of W-iii) is underway” scenario, see the chart below. Thus, the “W-b potential” remains our -by now distant- alternative. Thus, we view the index as now in the blue W-iii of the orange W-5, etc., contingent on holding above the following daily warning levels for the Bulls: 1st at 6466 (25% of uptrend over); 2nd at 6439 (50% chance uptrend over); 3rd at 6389 (75% chance uptrend over); 4th at 6370 (uptrend over). Breaks below these increase the odds for the alternative.

NASDAQ100

In yesterday's update, we examined the big picture to better understand why we remain bullish and see all pullbacks (4th waves at various degrees) as buying opportunities for swing trades, while confidently staying long until at least the larger 3rd wave top is in. Today's update switches back to the usual daily chart.

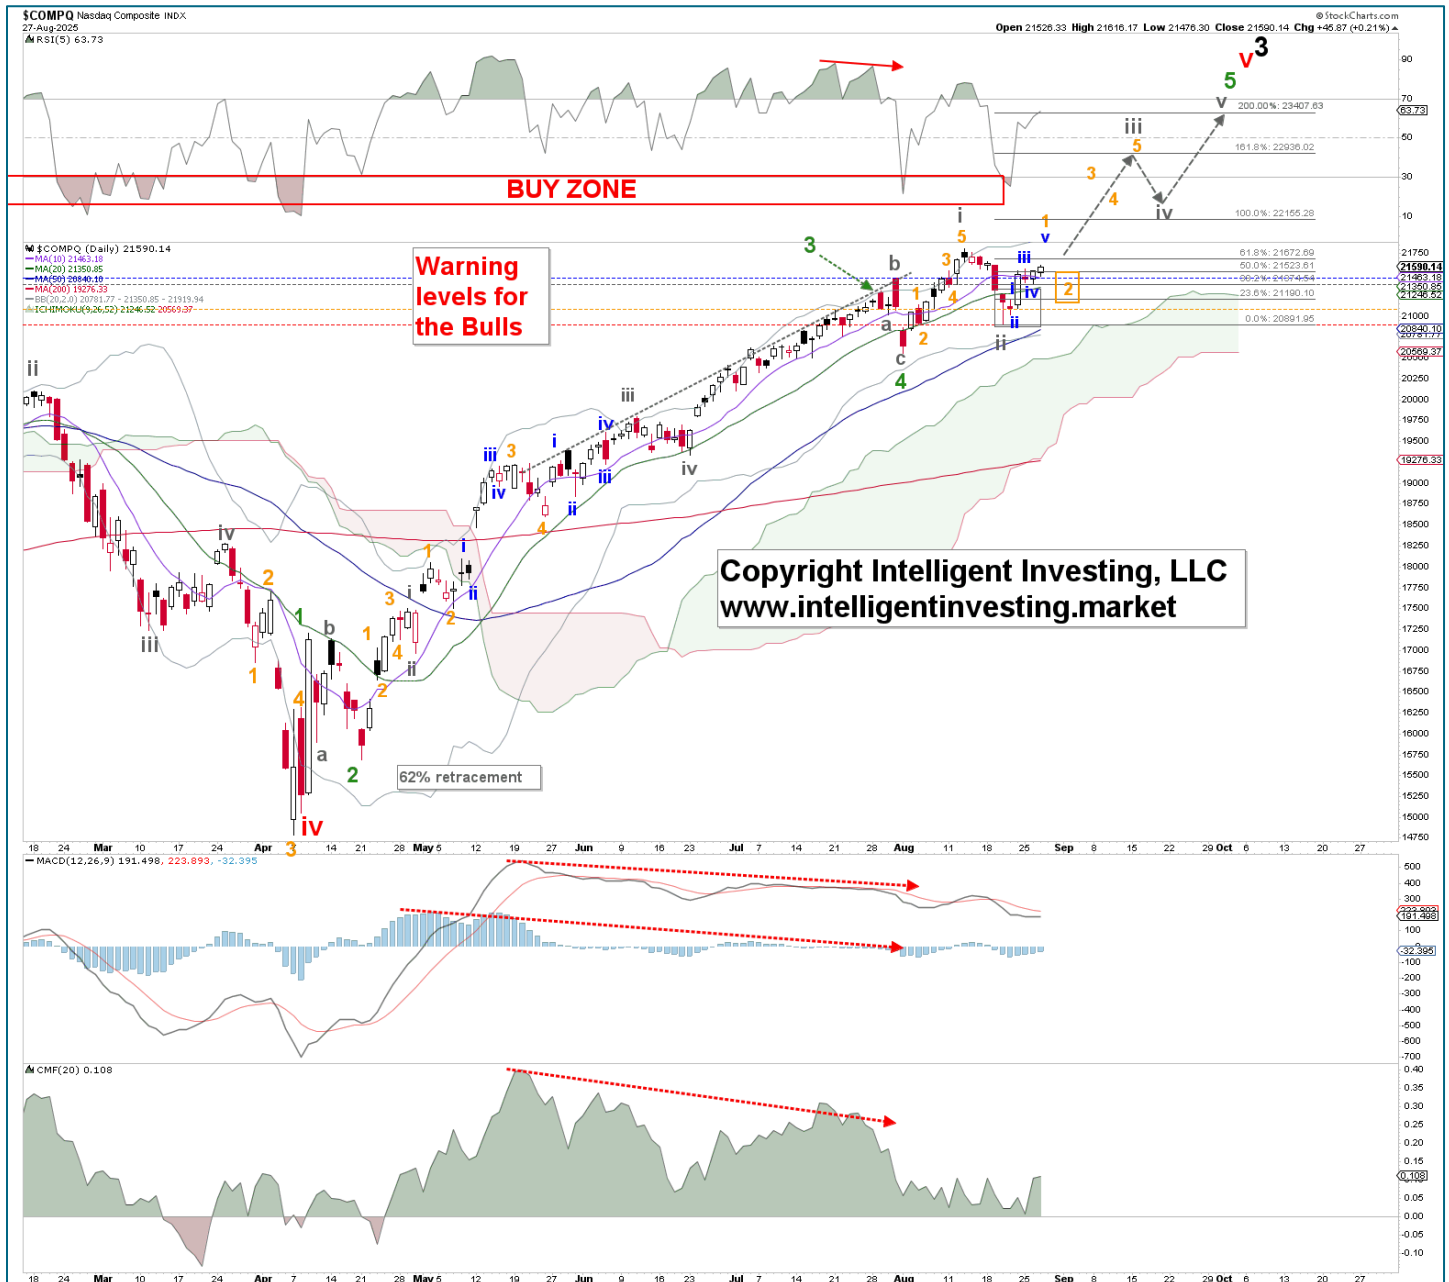

Remember that on Friday, we stated, "Thus, for now, we prefer to look higher regardless," and on Monday, we found, "Despite today's inside day, the orange W-4 can still be considered complete, contingent on holding above the following warning levels for the Bulls:" So far, so good, as today it appears that five waves up are forming from last week's low; see the NAS chart on the next page for details. This would confirm the W-5 to ideally be around 24575 ± 25 . We expect the W-i of W-5 of W-iii of W-3, etc., to complete at around 23750 ± 50 , followed by a W-ii dip to roughly today's and yesterday's lows (23450 ± 50), then a W-iii rally to about 24500 ± 50 , etc., depending on holding above the following warning levels for the Bulls: first at 23434 (25% of the uptrend over), second at 23369 (50% chance the uptrend ends), third at 23140 (75% chance the uptrend ends), and fourth at 22959 (uptrend over).

NASDAQ

Our Bullish subdividing W-5 has been featured on the NAS for a while, and so far nothing has disproven it. In fact, we can start to count five waves up on the smaller time frames from last week's gray W-ii low. In that case, the W-1 of W-iii should top out at around 21670+/-25, followed by a W-2 down to ideally 21350+/-50, etc.

However, we still need a break above last week's ATH to confirm the gray W-iii. But we can adjust the daily warning levels for the Bulls to tell us if that's not going to happen 1st at 21443; 2nd at 21389; 3rd at 21092; 4th at 20905.

DOW JONES INDUSTRIAL AVERAGE

By making a slight adjustment to the EWP count, we can still enable the gray W-v to ideally reach the green 200% extension at approximately 46,320. We can also modify the warning levels for the Bulls accordingly (see below). Note that the ALT count is beginning to increase, as it would allow the index to reach the 50,000+ target for a larger third-wave top. Additionally, although it is not necessary since different indexes can diverge, it helps achieve better alignment with the SPX, NDX, and NAS counts as well.

- 1st at 45372; 25% chance uptrend is over.
- 2nd at 45192; 50% chance the uptrend is over.
- 3rd at 44952; 75% chance the uptrend is over.
- 4th at 444579; 100% chance the uptrend is over.

SEMI CONDUCTORS

No material changes to our forecast, as we still see the index in a green W-5. The subdividing wave is starting to gain in probability as it aligns with what we showed for the other indexes today. In that case, the gray W-i should top out at around 5875 ± 25 , followed by a W-ii down to ideally 5650 ± 25 , etc. NVDA's earnings may do the trick. Thus, the warning levels for the Bulls remain at: 1st at 5777, 2nd at 5724, 3rd at 5643, 4th at 5480.

SMALL CAPS

It's interesting to see how the SML and DOW indices are closely connected these days. Therefore, just like what we did for the DOW, we can make a slight adjustment to the EWP count to help the gray W-v reach the 1445+/65 target zone more effectively. We can also adjust the warning levels for the Bulls accordingly (see below). Note that the ALT count is starting to increase, as it would enable the index to reach new ATHs sooner for its larger 5th wave (see prior updates). Additionally, although it's not necessary since different indexes can diverge, it helps achieve better alignment with the SPX, NDX, and NAS counts as well.

- 1st at 1432; below here and 25% chance uptrend is over.
- 2nd at 1424; below here and 50% chance the uptrend is over.
- 3rd at 1409; below here and 75% chance the uptrend is over.
- 4th at 1380; below here and 100% chance the uptrend is over.

CRYPTO CURRENCIES

BITO, GBTC

For BITO, we follow the standard impulse pattern, with a W-2, a W-iii, W-iv, and so on. The bottom (W-2) was reached yesterday, right at the 61.80% retracement of W-1. Note, we adjusted the W-1 wave count to better reflect a proportionate relationship between W-1 and W-2. Also, note that W-1 was almost exactly 61.80% of the next higher W-i. This is a typical Fibonacci relationship between first waves. Therefore, a move above Friday's W-b high will significantly strengthen the case for the W-3, ideally to around 26.50 ± 0.25 , and so on. All of this depends on the ETF staying above the following critical levels for the Bulls: 1st at 20.12, 2nd at 19.78, 3rd at 19.17, 4th at 18.18.

For GBTC, we exhibit the ending diagonal pattern, which will be slightly more overlapping (resembling ABC's) and not as high as a standard impulse. However, the bottom (W-b) was reached yesterday, right at the 61.80% retracement of W-a. Note that W-a was almost exactly 61.80% of the next higher W-1. This is a typical Fibonacci relationship between first waves and A-waves in an ED. It will allow for W-c to reach the 123.6% extension, a typical 3rd wave target in an ED. Therefore, a move above Friday's W-b high will significantly strengthen the case for the W-c ideally to around 114 ± 0.50 . Here we show the warning levels for the Bears: 1st at 87.94, 2nd at 89.57, 3rd at 92.31, 4th at 96.16.

IBIT, ETHE

For IBIT, we also follow the standard impulse pattern, with a W-2, a W-iii, W-iv, and so on. The bottom (W-2) was reached yesterday, right at the 61.80% retracement of W-1. Note, we adjusted the W-1 wave count to better reflect a proportionate relationship between W-1 and W-2. Also, note that W-1 was almost exactly 61.80% of the next higher W-i. This is a typical Fibonacci relationship between first waves. Therefore, a move above Friday's W-b high will significantly strengthen the case for the W-3, ideally to around 26.50 ± 0.25 , and so on. All of this depends on the ETF staying above the following critical levels for the Bulls: 1st at 63.05, 2nd at 62.11, 3rd at 59.83, 4th at 56.63.

For ETHE, we can count Friday's high as the red W-iii top. It is slightly different from Ether, but please remember that because the latter trades 24/365 and the former only 9-5, M-F, there will be the curious case of the missing waves. Thus, contingent on holding below the warning levels for the Bears, we may see the red W-iv develop to the ideal target zone (upper end preferred). 1st at 38.11, 2nd at 38.67, 3rd at 39.26, 4th at 40.13.

RIOT

For now, RIOT continues to follow the more immediate Bullish wave count. So, let's keep it as is. This indicates that the W-c of the W-iii within an (expanding) leading diagonal 1st wave, which ideally should reach $14.50+/-0.50, has likely topped. W-iv down to $12.75+/-0.25 should begin and it is confirmed if there is a daily close below today's low. From there, the W-v is expected to materialize. Of course, the B-wave scenario (see insert) remains our alternative. Therefore, the warning levels for Bulls are set to

- 1st at 13.28; below here and 25% chance uptrend is over.
- 2nd at 12.88; below here and 50% chance the uptrend is over.
- 3rd at 12.02; below here and 75% chance the uptrend is over.
- 4th at 11.21; below here and 100% chance the uptrend is over.

GOLD AND OIL

GLD

Today's continued Bullish price action continues to improve the odds that our outlook for another impulse higher is correct, and thus, as stated last week, "If all goes according to plan, GLD should now be in the orange W-3 of the gray W-iii of the green W-5, etc." With today's higher high, we can add the W-iii, iv sequence, so we still view in W-iii of W-3, etc., and thus we can adjust the warning levels for the Bulls: 1st at 310.77, 2nd at 309.67, 3rd at 306.43, 4th at 305.19. Note that a potential triangle is forming (black dotted lines), and a breakout above it (> $315) can reach $ 340, as the maximum width of the triangle is the target. This would allow for an extended green W-5.

GDX & GDXJ

Everything remains the same as yesterday for these two.

The blue W-v, to ideally 61-62, is still underway for GDX. So, all we must do is to raise some of the warning levels for the Bulls to allow for earlier warnings that the party is over: 1st at 60.44, 2nd at 59.69, 3rd at 58.38, 4th at 56.59.

The gray W-c is clearly still underway for GDXJ. So all we need to do is raise some of the warning levels for the Bulls to tell us the party is ending: 1st at 76.04, 2nd at 75.14, 3rd at 73.64, 4th at 71.18.

TRADING IS BORING – JUST THE RULES MA'AM*

- Short-term results are (more) random than intermediate- to long-term. Focus accordingly.
- An "edge" appears only through repetition.
- Thus, a trader's job is not to win, but to relentlessly repeat the same actions.
- Therefore, a trader doesn't wait for opportunities driven by the urge and desire to trade.
- Your responsibility is to follow the rules, and nothing more.
 - Thus, you act only because
 - "The opportunity has arrived,"
 - "It's the rule,"
 - "There is no choice but to act."
- You don't have the authority to decide "whether or not to follow that rule."
- Avoid setting a daily profit target.
 - It is irrelevant to you and beyond your control.
- If you are going to reflect, focus on failing to follow the rules. That will teach you!
- A trading system with a 50-50 win/loss ratio (WLR) and a 2-1 win/loss percentage (% WLP) is still more effective than one with a 90-10 (WLR) and a 1-5 (WLP).
 - It's not about how many trades you win.
 - It's about cutting losers and allowing winners to run.

Did you make a “good trade” today? Well, kudos to you, but if you only looked at the trade's profit to decide whether it was good, you did it all wrong. Specifically, your P/L has nothing to do with that assessment. A profit gained by breaking your rules is the worst trade, because it creates a false sense of success in your mind. Conversely, a loss that happens while perfectly following your rules is a valuable good trade that helps build a long-term edge.

Unless you can accept this, you haven't truly started trading.

*BACKTESTED TRADING SYSTEM PERFORMANCES

Our new trading systems work best by applying the principle of compounding, which involves reinvesting some or all of your profits in the next trade. The more you compound, the better the returns will be. Please review the table below. All the data for each ETF, CRYPTO, and almost every MAG7+ STOCK is also available here.

Please do not trade positions bought without the system's signals using the system's trading signals. Additionally, please refrain from entering a position when the trade is already in progress; wait for a new trading signal.

These systems operate entirely independently of our analyses. Do not try to combine or correlate them. They track prices and their trends based on several parameters that trigger buy, sell, or hold signals through if/then conditions. Sometimes our analysis is correct while the system is wrong, or vice versa. Or both can be right or wrong. Therefore, these systems complement our analyses and represent the ultimate trading experience: simply execute the signal. Refer to the previous page for what trading really is: a mindless, boring process of execution. Nothing more, nothing less.

The code for these trading systems is available for purchase. Please contact us for pricing details. It is written in Pine Script and can be directly integrated into TradingView, Alpaca, or Interactive Brokers (IBKR), allowing it to manage all your trading needs. Any AI, such as GROK or ChatGPT, can quickly modify the code to another language if necessary.
