STOCKMARKETS

SP500

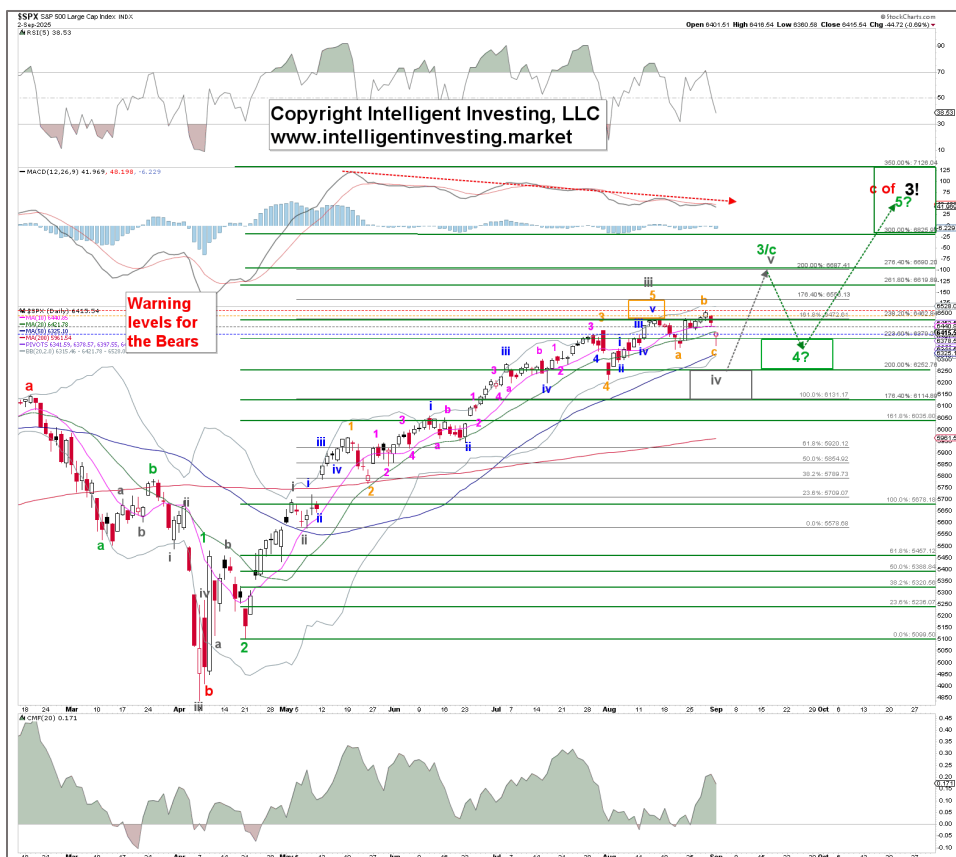

Although we can technically still allow for the Bullish 1-2 resolution (see the NAS section), we believe it is more prudent to allow for an irregular flat W-iv, and that W-iii has already topped. We now have good EWP alignment between the weekly and daily charts.

Note that the overall picture remains bullish, as discussed on Friday, and we're simply now in the stage where the market is wrapping up its 4th and 5th waves. We knew it was coming, so it's no surprise, but it is also our least favorite part because it is the most difficult to decipher. Regardless, it means the market is still in a buy-the-dip mode (4th waves).

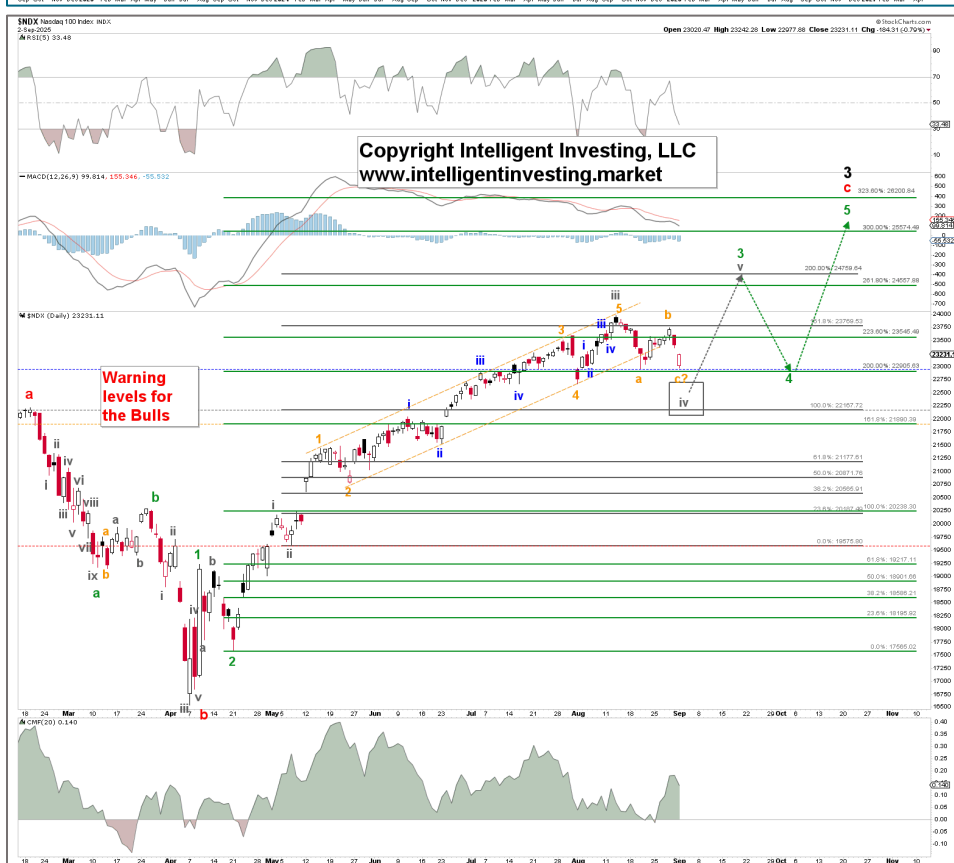

Flat corrections are typical for 4th waves, and they come in several types: regular ($a=b=c$), irregular ($a<b=c$), expanded ($a=b<c$), running ($c<a=b$), and combinations of these (such as an irregular running flat). In this case, we have an irregular flat on our hands. We don't know yet if c=a, c<a, or c>a. TBD, although the ideal W-iv target zone is set at 6130-6250. From there, a W-v rally to ideally 6690 can be expected.

Thus, the daily warning levels for the Bears are set at: 1st at 6412 (25% chance that the gray W-iv is over); 2nd at 6444 (50% chance the gray W-iv is over); 3rd at 6491 (75% chance the gray W-iv is over); 4th at 6508 (W-iv is certainly over).

Today, the index closed at 23231, indicating a 75% chance that the W-1, 2 setup we were tracking - see the NAS section - is not unfolding. Instead, with today's price action, and as for the SPX, the index counts better as being in W-c of W-iv.

The ideal target zone for W-iv is around 22400 ± 300 , but as mentioned for the SPX, we might see a truncated W-c. That should not surprise us because the rally from the April low is strong. Therefore, we see this as a buy-the-dip opportunity for a swing trade (holding for weeks to months), aiming for the gray W-v to ideally reach 24550-760.

NASDAQ

While the SPX and NDX exhibit the protracted 4th wave, the NAS still allows for the W-1,2 setup, as the index opened at the 3rd warning level (21086 vs 21092) but did not close below it. Besides, on Friday, we stated "... Thus, while we can allow for even lower prices for the W-2 (21100±100), the forecasted path is unfolding as anticipated."

At today's low, that lower target zone was reached, (Ⓜ), and there's therefore still no material changes since last Wednesday: "...we can start to count five waves up on the smaller time frames from last week's gray W-ii low. In that case, the W-1 of W-iii should top out at around 21670+/-25, followed by a W-2 down to ideally 21350+/-50, etc."

So we keep the warning levels for the bulls as is: 1st at 21534; 2nd at 21449; 3rd at 21092; 4th at 20905.

DOW JONES INDUSTRIAL AVERAGE

Well, that W-1 of W-v, which we presented on Friday, is off the table, and the best we can do for the Bulls is to allow for an expanded flat W-iv. A drop below the orange W-4 at 44579 on August 21 is a strong signal that even that's not an option. For now, let's keep it simple and stick to it, as the index bottomed at the orange warning level (44948 vs 44952), and that level held, which also equals the gray 100% extension. A typical 4th wave target within a standard Fib-based impulse.

- 1st at 45442; 25% chance uptrend is over.
- 2nd at 45282; 50% chance the uptrend is over.
- 3rd at 44952; 75% chance the uptrend is over.
- 4th at 444579; 100% chance the uptrend is over.

SEMI CONDUCTORS

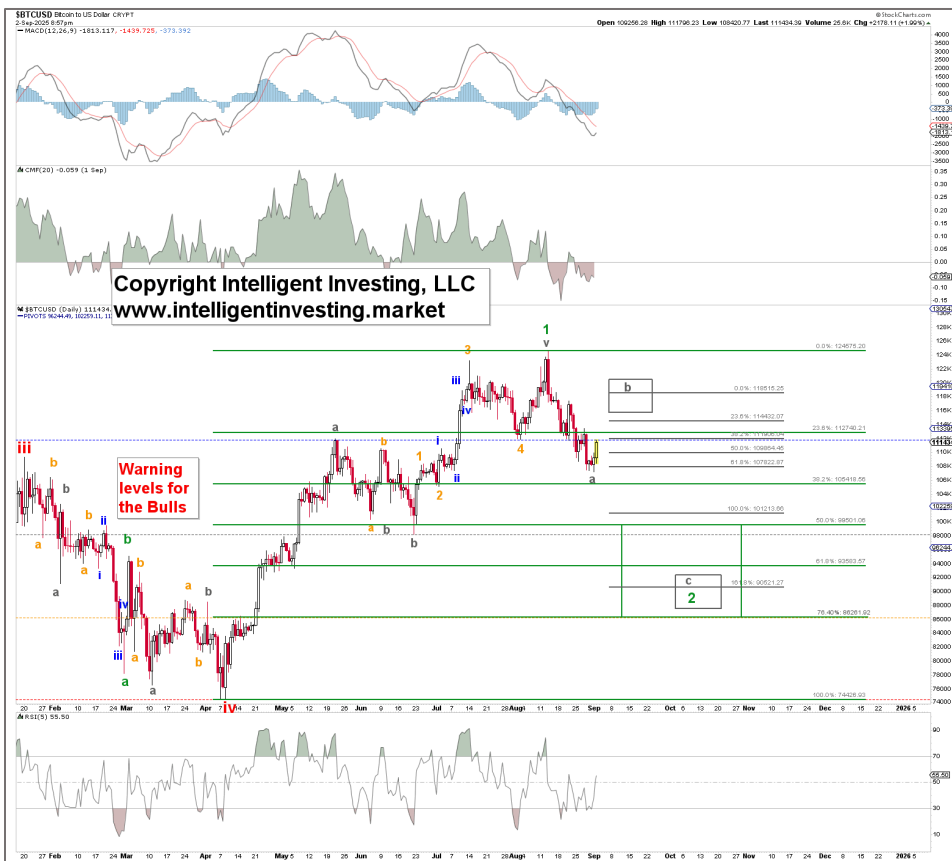

The index peaked on Thursday, as expected (5889 vs 5875+/-25), and dropped on Friday to the anticipated level (5646 vs 5650+/-50). We also recognized on Friday that it could still drop a little lower (5570-5620), to still allow for the potential gray W-ii, while acknowledging that “bad news will follow on daily closes below the 3rd and 4th daily warning levels for the bulls: 1st at 5808, 2nd at 5766, 3rd at 5724, 4th at 5574.”

With today's drop to as low as 5503 and closing below the third warning level, 5605 vs 5724, our accurate forecasting streak has come to an end. Yep, nobody can get it right every time. Therefore, we move the green W-4 label forward in time. See the chart below.

As you can see, the index has been stuck in a tight range (green box) for over two months. Forecasting range-bound price action is like throwing Jello over distance... Good luck... But such consolidations are normal and, unfortunately, while they often lead to many EW adjustments, we need to sit through them. This is also why short-term trading becomes more difficult: increased variability. If someone chooses to trade it, they must also be prepared to handle the consequences. Regardless, we can set new warning levels for the Bulls at: 5503, 5480, 5418, 5140.

BITCOIN

Our alternative is that a large ending diagonal red W-v is forming. EDs are often a 3-3-3-3-3 pattern, which means the August high was W-1: a-b-c = 3 waves. Now, W-2 is underway, followed by a W-3 to new ATHs, etc. Drilling down further, it would mean the gray W-a of W-2 has likely bottomed, and W-b to ideally 115880-12620 is underway, followed by W-c of W-2 to ideally ~90150+/-2500. The warning levels for the Bulls for this option are set at: 1st at 111925, 2nd at 98267, 3rd at 86260, and 4th at 74426.

RIOT

On Thursday, we presented the expanding leading diagonal in orange, wave 1: see the black circle, and found “If that’s the case, then RIOT is now in W-3 of W-iii, and so on.” So far, so good. For this option, the W-3 topped that day, and the W-4 bottomed today. Thus, W-5, ideally priced at ~$15.20+/-20, should now be underway contingent on holding above the appropriate warning levels. Thus, we keep the Bulls’ warning levels for this wave count as is:

- 1st at 13.64; below here and 25% chance uptrend is over.
- 2nd at 13.23; below here and 50% chance the uptrend is over.
- 3rd at 12.40; below here and 75% chance the uptrend is over.
- 4th at 11.21; below here, and the uptrend is over.

GOLD AND OIL

GLD

No material changes as the price continues to move as expected: higher! Therefore, the W-iii of W-3 etc., is still in progress and is significantly extending ☺. We like this trend. We can now raise the warning levels for the Bulls as follows: 1st at 320.24, 2nd at 317.60, 3rd at 313.53, and 4th at 309.67. The target zone to watch is 328-340, and we now anticipate the 4th and 5th waves to begin concluding the rally that started in late July!

GDX & GDXJ

The Bears continue to fail, allowing us to look for the next higher Fib-extension target zones and simply raise the warning levels!

FYI: we remain comfortably long, while partially selling into this strength and raising our stops in accordance with the daily warning levels. S I M P L E.

GDX: 1st at 63.20, 2nd at 61.21 3rd at 60.17, 4th at 58.38.

GDXJ: 1st at 80.06, 2nd at 77.11, 3rd at 75.83, 4th at 74.22.

TRADING IS BORING – JUST THE RULES MA'AM*

- Short-term results are (more) random than intermediate- to long-term. Focus accordingly.
- An "edge" appears only through repetition.
- Thus, a trader's job is not to win, but to relentlessly repeat the same actions.
- Therefore, a trader doesn't wait for opportunities driven by the urge and desire to trade.
- Your responsibility is to follow the rules, and nothing more.
 - Thus, you act only because
 - "The opportunity has arrived,"
 - "It's the rule,"
 - "There is no choice but to act."
- You don't have the authority to decide "whether or not to follow that rule."
- Avoid setting a daily profit target.
 - It is irrelevant to you and beyond your control.
- If you are going to reflect, focus on failing to follow the rules. That will teach you!
- A trading system with a 50-50 win/loss ratio (WLR) and a 2-1 win/loss percentage (% WLP) is still more effective than one with a 90-10 (WLR) and a 1-5 (WLP).
 - It's not about how many trades you win.
 - It's about cutting losers and allowing winners to run.

Did you make a “good trade” today? Well, kudos to you, but if you only looked at the trade's profit to decide whether it was good, you did it all wrong. Specifically, your P/L has nothing to do with that assessment. A profit gained by breaking your rules is the worst trade, because it creates a false sense of success in your mind. Conversely, a loss that happens while perfectly following your rules is a valuable good trade that helps build a long-term edge.

Unless you can accept this, you haven't truly started trading.

*BACKTESTED TRADING SYSTEM PERFORMANCES

Our new trading systems work best by applying the principle of compounding, which involves reinvesting some or all of your profits in the next trade. The more you compound, the better the returns will be. Please review the table below. All the data for each ETF, CRYPTO, and almost every MAG7+ STOCK is also available here.

Please do not trade positions bought without the system's signals using the system's trading signals. Additionally, please refrain from entering a position when the trade is already in progress; wait for a new trading signal.

These systems operate entirely independently of our analyses. Do not try to combine or correlate them. They track prices and their trends based on several parameters that trigger buy, sell, or hold signals through if/then conditions. Sometimes our analysis is correct while the system is wrong, or vice versa. Or both can be right or wrong. Therefore, these systems complement our analyses and represent the ultimate trading experience: simply execute the signal. Refer to the previous page for what trading really is: a mindless, boring process of execution. Nothing more, nothing less.

The code for these trading systems is available for purchase. Please contact us for pricing details. It is written in Pine Script and can be directly integrated into TradingView, Alpaca, or Interactive Brokers (IBKR), allowing it to manage all your trading needs. Any AI, such as GROK or ChatGPT, can quickly modify the code to another language if necessary.
